

INTIMATE PARTNER ABUSE ISN'T JUST A “STRAIGHT” THING.

Are you a lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, two-spirit, and/or gender-non-conform young person? Because of homophobia, biphobia, and transphobia, abuse in your relationships can look different than in heterosexual ones. And it happens just as much in the queer community as the straight one, with even higher rates of abuse toward trans and gender-non-conforming youth.

DOES YOUR PARTNER, DATE, OR HOOK-UP...

- Threaten to out your sexual orientation or gender identity?
- Control your money, hormones, HIV or other medications or important documents?
- Call you names, tell you you're not “really” queer or say that the abuse is “mutual”?
- Disrespect your wishes about your body and sex or use degrading words for your body parts?
- Deliberately use the incorrect name or gender pronoun when talking to or about you?
- Stalk you using Facebook, your phone, or other technology?
- Try to cut you off from your friends, family, or community?
- Say that no one will help you because you're queer and/or genderqueer?

...Then, you might be in an abusive relationship.
